Proposal for hosting HCSE 2019
Montreal, Canada

Valérie Bélanger, Nadia Lahrichi, Ettore Lanzarone, Semih Yalçındağ
Fourth edition
From Europe to North America

Montréal,
Canada,
2019
Why Montréal?

• Strong collaboration with hospitals and healthcare institutions
Following the spirit of the HCSE conferences

• Conference hosted in an hospital
• Discussants from the healthcare environment in each session
• Keynote speakers from both healthcare practice and research
• No parallel sessions
• Visit inside the hospital
• Springer Proceedings in Mathematics and Statistics
Venue – three options
CHU Sainte-Justine

- Teaching hospital
- Exclusively dedicated to children, adolescents and mothers
- Each year:
  - 3,530 births
  - 83,271 visits to the emergency
  - About 222,984 visits in outpatient clinics
- The CHU Sainte-Justine staff, it's:
  - 5,457 employees including 1,532 nurses
  - 520 doctors and pharmacists
  - 204 researchers
  - 411 volunteers
  - 4,416 trainees and students
Sir Mortimer B. Davis Jewish general hospital

• A full service university affiliated medical center
  • Serves a large and diverse population in Montreal
  • Provides a broad range of inpatient and outpatient services
  • Has major tertiary & quaternary cardiovascular, neurosciences, oncology (including robotic surgery) and neo-natology programs

• Each year:
  • Beds: 637
  • Physicians: about 645 (affiliated to McGill)
  • Residents: 188 assigned to JGH and 636 en rotating
  • Nursing staff: 1 441
  • Admissions: about 24 800 (1 each 21 minutes)
  • Consultations externes: Environ 570 000 (1 chaque 55 secondes)
  • Emergency visits: 65 000 (1 each 8 minutes)
  • Births: about 4 500 (1 each 2 hours)
  • Surgeries: about 14 300 (39 per day)
  • Radiology exams: about 186 000 (510 per day)
  • ECG: about 7 500
CHUM – centre hospitalier universitaire de l’université de Montréal

- Teaching hospital
  - Hotel-Dieu
  - Notre-Dame
  - Saint-Luc
- Research center
Around the organization

• Tentative dates

  May 8-10, 2019

• Registration fees

  € 450 – € 300 or CAD 650 – CAD 440

  in line with the previous editions
Conference committee

Valérie Bélanger
HEC Montréal, Canada

Nadia Lahrichi
Polytechnique Montréal, Canada

Ettore Lanzarone
Consiglio Nazionale delle Ricerche (CNR-IMATI), Italy

Semih Yalçındağ
Yeditepe University, Turkey
Thanks for the attention!
Hope to see you in Montréal